What You Should Know About Rent Control in the District of Columbia

This pamphlet will help you understand rent control laws and regulations. The rent control law is the Rental Housing Act of 1985 (DC Law 6-10) as amended (the Act), which is codified as DC Official Code §42-3501.01 et seq., as well as the corresponding D.C. Municipal Regulations, Title 14, Chapter 4200 et seq. You can find the complete law in most DC public libraries or online at: <http://government.westlaw.com/linkedslice/default.asp?rs=gvt1.0&vr=2.0&sp=dcc-1000>

Rental Accommodations Division

The Rental Accommodations Division (RAD), which is part of the Department of Housing and Community Development's (DHCD) Housing Regulation Administration (HRA), is responsible for administering the Act. The head of RAD is the Rent Administrator. HRA was transferred from the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs to DHCD, effective October 1, 2007.

Office of Administrative Hearings

The Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) conducts hearings on RAD petitions.

Rental Housing Commission

A separate, 3-member Rental Housing Commission (RHC) is the first level of appeal of the decisions made on RAD petitions. The RHC also writes regulations under the Act.

Rent Control Terms

Under the Act, an apartment building or apartment complex is called a housing accommodation, and a single apartment or house is called a rental unit. A tenant is a tenant, but a landlord is referred to as a housing provider.

Applicability

The Act applies to all housing accommodations in the District of Columbia, unless they are specifically exempted by the Act. The most common exemptions are rental units in these categories:

- Federally or District-subsidized rental units,
- Rental units built after 1975,
- Rental units (including condominium or cooperative units) owned by a natural person who owns no more than four rental units, provided the rental units are registered as exempt,
- Rental units that were vacant when the Act took effect, and
- Housing accommodations under a building improvement plan and receiving rehabilitation assistance through DCHD.

Registration

Every housing accommodation or rental unit must be registered with RAD by filing a RAD Registration and Claim of Exemption form. Once registered, the housing accommodation or rental unit is assigned a registration number if it is subject to rent control. If it is exempt, it is assigned an exemption number. If a housing accommodation was initially exempt from the Act but later becomes subject to the Act, the housing provider must amend the RAD Registration and Claim of Exemption form at that time. Changes in ownership or management must be filed with RAD within 30 days of the event.

Increases in Rent

Under the Act, any increase in rent must meet these conditions:

1. The new rent charged may not be more than the prior rent plus an allowable increase, as described below.

19. If Proceedings shall at any time be commenced for recovery of possession as aforesaid and compromise or settlement shall be effected either before or after judgment whereby Tenant shall be permitted to retain possession of said premises, then such proceedings shall not constitute a waiver of any covenant, condition or agreement contained herein or of any subsequent breach thereof or of this agreement.

20. That Landlord shall be under no liability to Tenant due to any discontinuance of heat, hot water, elevator service, air conditioning, if such services are furnished, or for the discontinuance of any other service, caused by accidents, breakage or strikes, or for any accident or damage caused by the handling of electric wires or lights, and that Landlord shall not be liable for loss of damage to property of Tenant caused by Termites, or other vermin, or by rain, snow, water or steam that may leak onto, or flow from any part of said premises through any defects in the roof or plumbing or from any other source.

If said casualty is caused, in any way by the negligence of Tenant, his/her servants, guests, invitees, family members, or agents, then this lease shall immediately terminate and Tenant shall not be entitled to re-enter and re-occupy said unit. In the event of said negligence, Tenant shall be responsible for the payment of any and all loses resulting from said negligence. Nothing herein to be construed, however, as requiring Landlord to rebuild or restore said premises.

It is further understood that the late period is NOT a grace period, and the rent is due and payable on the FIRST day of each month. Tenant further agrees to pay a handling charge of $36.00 or the maximum fee charged to the Landlord or agent by the bank whichever is greater for each check returned by the bank for any reason.
