Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser shall have no obligation to maintain strict confidentiality with regard to any material or information also available from other sources (unless such availability arises from a prohibited disclosure by Purchaser or Purchaser's Authorized Representatives).

3.1.4 In the event Purchaser fails to consummate the purchase of the Property as provided for in Section 6.1 of this Agreement, Purchaser shall return the Materials to Seller. This provision shall survive termination of this Agreement.

Code 3404.01 et seq. (collectively herein "TOPA") Seller shall provide tenants with an Offer of Purchase pursuant to TOPA. In the event that tenants or their assignees' exercise their TOPA right to accept the Offer of Sale and or Right of First Refusal and tenants or their assignees enter into a contract of sale with Seller, Purchaser agrees that this Agreement shall remain in place as a Back Up contract until the earlier of such time as the tenants (or their assigns) close on the purchase of the Property, or all tenants' TOPA rights have expired (whether through waiver, assignment or expiration of time) without purchase. In the event of expiration of TOPA rights without tenant or assignees' purchase, Purchaser shall close on the purchase and sale of the Property as set forth in paragraph 2.5 hereof. In the event that tenants assign their rights to Purchaser, or an assignee of Purchaser, Purchaser agrees, notwithstanding any time limits otherwise provided under TOPA, to close on the purchase in accordance with paragraph 2.5 hereof.

3.3 Title.

3.3.1 On or before the Closing Date, Seller shall own good and marketable fee simple title to the Property, both of record and in fact, fully insurable at standard rates, subject only to the Permitted Exceptions (defined below) (such title, "Acceptable Title"). The Deed of Conveyance shall be a Personal Representative's Deed without warranties. The Escrow Agent shall not release any portion of the Purchase Price to Seller until Acceptable Title has been obtained and the Escrow Agent has irrevocably committed itself in writing to issue an America Land Title Association Owner's Policy of Title Insurance and/or Loan Policy of Title Insurance on behalf of the Title Company with respect to the Property, effective as of the Closing Date, at regular rates, free and clear of all encumbrances, subject only to the Permitted Exceptions (the "Title Policy") to the Purchaser.

3.3.2 In furtherance of the foregoing Section 3.3.1:

If the condition of title to the Property as set forth in such Title Commitment or the survey or as otherwise reflected in the public records is not reasonably satisfactory to Purchaser, then Purchaser shall give Seller notice (the "Notice of Title Objections") on or before the expiration of the Financing Contingency Period as to any unsatisfactory title conditions and conditions in the Title Commitment. Seller, within ten (10) business days after receipt of the Notice of Title Objections, shall notify Purchaser in writing either that Seller: (i) is unable or unwilling to correct such unacceptable matters, or (ii) shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cure, eliminate or modify such unacceptable matters to the reasonable satisfaction of Purchaser on or before the Closing Date. ("Curing Period"). A failure of Seller to respond to the Notice of Title Objections within the Curing Period or to send notice that it will not cure shall be deemed an election by Seller not to cure such unacceptable matters. If such title objections remain uncured as of the expiration of the Curing Period, then Purchaser may either waive such title objections and proceed to Closing without any adjustment in the Purchase Price, or terminate this Agreement by notice to Seller in which event, and neither Party shall have any further liability to the other Party under this Agreement, except for provisions of this Agreement which expressly survive termination.

(b) If Seller elects to cure a title objection, then Seller shall take steps reasonably necessary to cause the title to the Property to be free of such title objection, other than Permitted Exceptions. Any matter set forth in the Title Commitment, reflected on any survey obtained by Purchaser, or recorded in the public records as of the Effective Date that is not objected to by Purchaser on or before the expiration of the Financing Contingency Period shall be a "Permitted Exception". Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 3.3.2, Seller and Purchaser agree that the lien of real estate taxes, not yet due and payable, shall constitute a Permitted Exception and shall be equitably adjusted pursuant to Section 6.4. At or prior to Closing, Seller shall release or cause to be released (i) all deeds of trust liens, mechanics' liens, delinquent real property taxes and other monetary liens and encumbrances encumbering the Property that are shown of record on the Title Policy or the Title Commitment, and any of the foregoing shall not be considered Permitted Exceptions, whether or not objected to by Purchaser, and (ii) all other clouds on title that may be cured by payment of a liquidated sum, unless such clouds are Permitted Exceptions.

3.3.3 Intentionally Omitted

3.4 Casualty. Seller assumes all risk of loss, damage or injury to (a) the Property and (b) any and all licensees, invitees or other third parties at the Property (other than loss, damage or injury caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct by Purchaser or Purchaser's Authorized Representatives) that occurs prior to Closing. In the event that all or any portion of the Property is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty prior to Closing, Seller shall promptly notify Purchaser of the same. If the Property is materially or substantially damaged, Purchaser, in their sole discretion, shall either (i) proceed to Closing with a commensurate reduction in the Purchase Price, such reduction to be agreed upon by the Parties and may be based, in part, on an appraisal of the then-current market value of the remaining undamaged portion of the Property, which appraisal, should the Parties elect that one be performed, shall be performed by an appraiser mutually agreed upon by the Parties and the cost of which shall be shared equally by the Parties, or (ii) terminate this Agreement upon written notice to Seller. In the event Purchaser terminates this Agreement in accordance with the foregoing sentence, Escrow Agent shall promptly return the Deposit to Purchaser, and all rights, obligations and liabilities of the Parties under this Agreement shall be extinguished and discharged (except to the extent the same expressly survive termination under the terms of this Agreement). Seller shall indemnify Purchaser for any and all liabilities accruing before Closing as a result of loss, damage or injury at or on the Property caused by Seller (such indemnification obligation to survive Closing).

3.5 Appraisal Contingency. This Contract is contingent until 6:00 p.m. on the thirtieth (30th) day after the Effective Date ("Appraisal Deadline") for Purchaser to obtain a written appraised valuation of the Property ("Appraisal") certifying the value of the Property to be no less than the Sales Price. Lender shall select the appraiser. The appraiser shall be licensed to perform Appraisals in the jurisdiction in which the Property is located. Seller shall make the Property available for inspection by such appraiser. In the event that the Appraisal is lower than the Sales Price, Purchaser has the option of proceeding with this Contract at the stated Sales Price without regard to the Appraisal. However, should Purchaser decline to proceed with this Contract at the stated Sales Price (due to the Appraisal being lower than the stated Sales Price), Purchaser shall Deliver to Seller, by the Deadline, a Notice requesting that the Sales Price be reduced to a specified lower amount of not less than the appraised value, together with a copy of the written Appraisal ("Purchaser's Appraisal Notice"). This Contingency will terminate at the Appraisal Deadline, unless by the Appraisal Deadline Purchaser Delivers to Seller Purchaser's Appraisal Notice. In the event that Purchaser Delivers to Seller Purchaser's Appraisal Notice by the Appraisal Deadline, the parties shall have until 6:00 p.m. on the 3rd Business Day after Delivery of the Notice ("Negotiation Period") to negotiate a mutually acceptable new Sales Price. At any time during the Negotiation Period, parties may make, modify, or alter as many Appraisal Notices as desired to reach mutually acceptable terms. Parties may agree on terms by both executing the Appraisal Notice and/or Addendum describing the agreed upon new Sales Price within the Negotiation Period. If, at the end of the Negotiation Period, the parties are unable to reach an agreement, Purchaser or Seller shall have the option to void this Contract by Delivering Notice to the other party by 6:00 p.m. on the 3rd Business Day following the end of the Negotiation Period, otherwise this appraisal contingency shall be removed, and this Contract will remain in full force and effect at the original Sales Price.

3.6 Financing Contingency. Purchaser shall Deliver by 6:00 p.m. thirtieth (30) Days after Effective Date ("Financing Deadline") a conditional commitment for financing from Lender ("Conditional Commitment"). The Conditional Commitment shall include any outstanding conditions after initial underwriter review, such as final underwriting review/audit, final title review and other underwriting requirements, if any. The Conditional Commitment shall not contain any conditions for the verification of income, assets, employment, and/or obtaining a credit report, but may contain conditions for the re-verification of same. If Purchaser receives a written letter of rejection for financing from Lender and purchaser delivers a copy of the written rejection to Seller by the financing deadline, then the escrow agent shall return the full deposit to the purchaser and the contract will be void. Upon Delivery of the Conditional Commitment, the Financing Contingency will expire. If, after delivering the conditional commitment by the financing deadline, the purchaser is unable to close by the closing date as a result of inability to obtain financing, then purchaser shall be in default. However, the seller may a) consent to extend the closing date, or b) declare the contract void in which case the parties agree to execute a release agreement of the Contract in a timely manner and for the disbursement of the deposit to Seller.

3.7 Eminent Domain; Condemnation. In the event the Property, or any portion thereof, is condemned by any governmental authority under its power of eminent domain or becomes the subject of a notice of condemnation, Purchaser, in their sole discretion may elect to: (a) within ten (10) days of notification of condemnation proceedings, terminate this Agreement, in which event Escrow Agent shall promptly return the Deposit to Purchaser, and all rights, obligations and liabilities of the Parties under this Agreement shall be extinguished and discharged, except to the extent the same expressly survive termination under the terms of this Agreement, or, if Purchaser does not terminate as provided in 3.7(a), then(b) Purchaser is obliged to complete settlement hereunder, in which event Seller shall assign to Purchaser all of Seller's right, title and interest in and to any condemnation awards, whether pending or already paid.
